Jonathan Lewis

- Are you interested?

The full-day seminar costs $250, but SFOUG members get a $50 discount, making it a very-affordable $200. Attendees get a continental breakfast, boxed lunch, afternoon snack and a printed handout. Most importantly, they would get to spend a day with Jonathan Lewis, one of the top Oracle performance experts in the world. The Twin Cities Oracle Users Group had Jonathan for four days of seminars in Minneapolis last November and everybody was very pleased with the training they received. An average of fifty people attended each seminar.
